

Indigenous Adjunct Professors – Term Appointment

Winter Terms 1&2 2017-2018

SLAIS the iSchool@ubc will offer a part-time Adjunct appointment for an indigenous information professional to mentor and support indigenous students across the school's programs, advise and strengthen the school's First Nations Curriculum Concentration and inform the school's efforts to support indigenous information initiatives throughout the 2017 -2018 academic year.

Period of Employment

Term 1 – September to December

Term 2 January to April

The successful candidate is expected to mentor Indigenous students enrolled in programs at SLAIS the iSchool, actively contribute to and lead strategic planning and the implementation of initiatives in support of the school's First Nations Curriculum Concentration (FNCC) and inform the school's engagements with indigenous peoples, communities and organizations. The successful candidate will work closely with the School's FNCC Co-ordinator.

This position requires a Master's degree or PhD in an information profession and preferably 5 years' relevant experience or the equivalent combination of education and experience. A minimum of 3 years' experience in Indigenous research methodologies or equivalent.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from visible minority-group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities.

The successful candidate will need excellent communication and mentoring skills, ability to listen and witness, ability to talk across cultures and skills working strategically within UBC.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Non Canadian applicants are expected to take responsibility for acquiring and keeping current all necessary work permits.
